

MASSACHUSETTS COMMUNITY INVESTMENT TAX CREDIT

What is the Community Investment Tax Credit?

The Community Investment Tax Credit (CITC) is a state tax credit program which provides a 50% tax credit for donations to selected Community Development Corporations in Massachusetts. The Massachusetts Department of Housing and Community Development has awarded OneHolyoke CDC $100,000 in CITCs.

The OneHolyoke CDC is one of a select group of organizations in the Commonwealth to receive CITCs. This award is based on OneHolyoke CDC's proven track record of high performance and the potential impact of proposed future initiatives to improve economic opportunities for low and moderate-income households within the Pioneer Valley.

With help from our supporters, One Holyoke CDC Corporation will use the $100,000 in CITCs to secure $200,000 funding.

Individuals, corporate donors, and foundations making cash contributions of at least $1,000 are eligible to receive a -fully-refundable state tax credit for 50% of their donation.

The CITC is refundable. If a donor owes less in state taxes than the amount of the credit, the Commonwealth will issue the donor a check for the balance.

Donations made through the CITC program are also eligible for federal tax deductions and may be claimed in the year the gift was made.

Your CITC contribution will help us to continue to build better businesses and stronger communities in the Pioneer Valley.
